News Briefs

Slick Roads Contribute To 29 Accidents

Inclement weather and poor road conditions were blamed for the 29 accidents investigated by the sheriff's dept. during the week between Christmas and New Years Day. Twenty-one of the accidents involved damage to personal property (fender benders) and eight resulted in injuries to either the driver of the vehicle or to its passengers. One person was injured in a snowmobile related accident.

On Tuesday, December 26, Sheriff deputies were called to a three car accident at the intersection of M-72 West and Manistee River Road. One woman was transported by ambulance to Mercy Hospital with a possible injury to her back. On December 27th, multiple vehicles were involved in a collision at M-72 West and McIntyres Landing Road.

Lake Residence Damaged by Fire

Volunteers of the Grayling City and Township Fire Department and firemen from the Beaver Creek Fire Department battled a house fire at the Kent Rininger residence near Lake Margrethe on Sunday, December 31.

The fire, which started somewhere in the basement and caused extensive damage to the home, was reported at 2:56 p.m. and firemen were at the site for about six hours.

Rininger lives out-of-state, and no one was home when the fire began. Cause of the fire has not been determined and it is still under investigation.

Needed for the cast are four men and four women, all of whom sing. In addition to actors, several musicians are needed for the orchestra. Production people will also be needed to handle such jobs as costumes, properties, set design and construction and lighting and sound. Anyone who is interested in working on this production of TWO BY TWO may call H. T. Productions at 348-5187 or the Grayling Holiday Inn at 349-7611 for more information and audition dates.

AuSable Marathon Showed Great Growth in 1980's

The AuSable River Marathon has grown and become more successful in many ways during the decade of the 1980's. Some of the improvements and accomplishments achieved during the past 10 years include:

- * The purse has increased from $6000 to $25000.
- * The Marathon has attracted more top out-of-state paddlers, creating some of the closest finishes among the top several teams of all time.
- * Spectator interest has greatly increased.
- * Media coverage has dramatically improved, with extensive coverage in newspapers throughout the state and widespread TV and radio coverage.
- * A major sponsor - Budweiser - and Associate Sponsors, such as Grayling State Bank and Weyerhaeuser, have supported the Marathon.
- * Close cooperation with the AuSable Milltown Festival Committee has benefitted both events.

* Close cooperation, rather than confrontation, with committee members in Oscoda have paved the way for Marathon improvements.

* Grayling's active organizing committee has grown from a "group" of one to three volunteers, in the early 80's, to a group of six or more working volunteers in the past couple of years.

* During the 80's no Marathon has finished "in the red".

FAN PARTICIPATION & MEDIA EXPOSURE

Beyond providing area residents a fun experience, the Marathon benefits the community by attracting visitors in conjunction with the AuSable Milltown Festival and by generating positive media exposure. It is an opportunity to present the positive aspects of our community to a large audience. Both spectator and media interest in the Marathon have climbed over the last several years.

The number of spectators at the start and along the course of the race has climbed significantly, totaling over 30,000 along the total course of the race by some estimates.

Alternating Friday/Saturday starts, agreed to with the Oscoda committee a number of years ago have diminished crowds somewhat on Friday-start years. The policy of alternating starting days will be changed in 1990, with the Marathon start firmly designated for Saturday evening for the foreseeable future.

Oscoda, in an effort coordinated by their Chamber of Commerce, added a number of events to Marathon weekend during 1988. As a result, they were successful in attracting and holding a larger crowd at the finish line on Sun-

WINTER BIKING - Edward Lockard stops in Grayling after fighting deep snow and 17 - below weather on a trip from Sault Ste. Marie to Detroit.

Snow, Cold Doesn't Stop Long-Distance Biker

Last year around this time Edward Lockard was traveling through part of the Sahara Desert on a long bike trip.

Last week he was in Grayling fighting through the deep snow and cold temperatures about halfway through a winter bike trip from Sault Ste. Marie to Detroit.

Lockard, 43, of Detroit, bikes year-round and this is the second winter trip he's made from Sault Ste. Marie to Detroit. He completed the first trip in 1985 but he's run into rougher weather this time.

He started in Sault Ste. Marie Tuesday, Dec. 26, and the temperature was 17 below zero.

"I've learned how to dress for the cold weather on this trip," said Lockard.

He traveled from the Soo to Mackinaw City along the old Mackinac Trail on Tuesday.

Riding into the bitter wind for 60 miles in the Upper Peninsula was the toughest part of the trip so far.

On Wednesday from Mackinaw City to Indian River along Old 27, Lockard had to battle deep snow along the shoulder of the road. Every time a car went by he would have to move over to the unplowed shoulder where there was 8 to 12 inches, and sometimes more, of snow.

On Thursday, he traveled from Indian River to Crawford County and he still hadn't fallen with the bike once despite the deep snow.

Then just north of Grayling, "Some lady in a Chevy pick-up slid off the road just a bit and knocked me off my bike," said Lockard.

The pick-up bent his bike kick-stand and broke the lens cap on his camera but Lockard was not injured.

He spent Thursday night at Chief Shoppenagons where manager Mary Harland treated him to a dinner and a breakfast. A sheriff deputy who checked out the accident gave Lockard a local map and showed him how to reach Old 27 via Military Road.

"Everyone has been really helpful on this trip," said Lockard. He started Friday from Chief Shoppenagons to reach Midland. He planned on reaching home in Detroit Sunday.

Lockard, who has worked at Chrysler in Detroit for 21 years, uses vacation time for his long-distance bike trips. He's traveled from Chicago to Detroit, New Orleans to Detroit, and Acapulco to Detroit.

Why does he do it? "I like biking. I started riding again a lot when I was 29 and I've been doing it ever since."

Lockard likes biking because it builds up his cardio-vascular system. He also likes photography and combines both hobbies when on his long trips.

"I'd like to see kids try to do more active things. More and more kids are couch potatoes content to sit in front of a VCR."

Lockard says his mother kids him that he's crazy to take such long trips.

"It's surprising what your body can do if your mind wants to," he said.

Call for Marathon Volunteers Begins

Officiating of the AuSable River Canoe Marathon is a vast and difficult volunteer task. There is great personal satisfaction in helping to stage an event like the Marathon, though many fans may not be fully aware of and appreciate the effort contributed by these volunteer race officials.

As recently as 1985, Marathon organizers have waited near the river at the start of the race, hoping that enough volunteer timers would check-in to do even a bare-bones job of timing the Marathon. At that time, little or no thought was given to the judging process. Even in more recent years there have not been enough volunteers to fully record times at each timing location.

Thankfully, things have improved. This past year, well in advance of the race, Timing Committee Chairman Tom Brooks recruited a sufficient number of local volunteer timers and official observers to adequately time the Marathon. They received pre-race training and, divided into teams to cover each of the fifteen timing locations, did a thorough, credible job of timing all teams entered.

The Judges Committee was created by the Marathon organizing committee (ARICM, Inc.) and the Michigan Canoe Racing Association (MCRA) several years ago to oversee officiating of the Marathon. In recent years before the formation of the Judges Committee, officiating of the race was handled by the MCRA Board of Directors, many of whom competed in the Marathon.

The Judges Committee is comprised of three volunteer members: A representative appointed by ARICM, Inc.; a representative appointed by MCRA; and a previous Marathon paddler who has not competed in five years jointly appointed by ARICM and MCRA.

Several months before the race the Judges Committee, together with representatives of ARICM and MCRA, meet to review the race rules and submit proposed rule changes to the ARICM and MCRA Boards of Directors. They also interpret and clarify race rules and, to the extent possible, identify possible sanctions for potential rules violations.

During Marathon weekend, a member of the Judges Committee is present at the sprints for position, measuring, starting line, etc. They also follow the race throughout the night observing, communicating with timers and observers and, in case of dispute, decisions are made by the Judges Committee. Penalties may be imposed by the Judges, whether in response to an official protest filed by a contestant, or of their own initiative.

In the 1989 AuSable River Canoe Marathon, the team which first reached the finish line in Oscoda was not officially awarded first place. Prior to the start of the race Steve Landick, of Marquette, Michigan, and Solomon Carriere, of Saskatchewan, Canada, were assessed a ten minute penalty by the Judges Committee. When added to their elapsed time, the penalty dropped the pair from first place to fourth place.

The penalty was assessed because Landick and Carriere missed the "mandatory" contestants' pre-race briefing which followed the official canoe measuring (also "mandatory") on Saturday; they were the only team not represented at the briefing. The Judges met, spoke to the pair, imposed the ten minute penalty and informed them of the decision prior to start of the race.

Some Marathon observers felt that the ten minute penalty assessed to Landick and Carriere was unwarranted or too harsh. Prior to the 1989 race the only penalty detailed in the rules for an infraction was disqualification. The ten minute penalty was added to the rules this year to provide the judges with a less harsh alternative; a penalty which might be imposed by the Judges for "lesser" infractions.

The pre-race briefing is designated as "mandatory" because it is the final (and actually only official) opportunity to brief the contestants as to any last minute safety considerations, course information, rule changes or interpretations, or other information which might have an impact

Crawford County Library Adds Educational Videos

Children's classics at the Crawford County Library have taken on the form and movement of video tape as actors such as Robin Williams, Ricky Schroder, Joan Collins and Lesley Ann Warren portray such storybook characters as Hansel and Gretel, the Dancing Princesses and the Frog Prince.

Nearly 100 travelogue, how-to and children's literature video tapes were purchased for the library through donations from the estate of Col. Hardin Sweeney, a former graduate of Grayling High School, and the Fraser M. Dean Memorial Fund.

Travelogue tapes can whisk residents who are tired of the cold, snowy weather off to sunny Athens and Rome. Video Visit tapes can transport the viewer to Australia, London, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, Ireland and for a Kenya Safari.

The library has several National Geographic tapes that feature The Great Whales, Land of the Tiger, African Wildlife and Save the Panda. National Audubon tapes include California Condor and Birds of North America.

How-to video tapes include the Home Improvement Series on Garages, Electrical, Installing Kitchen Cabinets, Plumbing and Bicycle Repair.

For the person approaching a self-improvement program, Jane Fonda's New Workout, Yogi Berra's Yoga Workout and Carole Jackson's Color Me Beautiful Make-up tapes are available.

Local crafters will find Basic Log Cabin by Kaye Wood, Patchwork Quilting with Marti Mitchell, Jane Berry's Bows, Basic Ribbon Crafts and Learn to Cross-stitch filled with new ideas and techniques.

"We feel we are providing videos not available in quantity from local video stores," said Librarian Rose Duley, "and are not going to order tapes considered entertainment tapes." She said the library has no intention of competing with local video stores.

A library card is required to borrow a video tape and a $2 deposit is needed to each video checked out. The deposit is refunded upon return.

Video tapes can be borrowed for two days. If overdue, the deposit will not be refunded.

and an additional $2 per day will be charged per video for each day they are not returned.

Because video tapes should not be exposed to heat or cold, they cannot be returned via the drop box. If they are, the deposit will not be refunded. Lost or damaged videos must be paid for at replacement costs and parents are responsible for videos checked out by their children.

"We would like to stress to children that there is good literature available on tapes," she said.

The largest selection of tapes fall into the Children's Classics category and come in narrative, animated and actor portrayed versions.

Random House Videos include Misty of Chincoteague by Marguerite Henry, The Fledgling by Jane Langton, and Dear Mr. Henshaw by Beverly Cleary.

Playhouse Videos have noted actors portraying the characters in such classics as: Puss in Boots with Gregory Hinds, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs with Elizabeth McGovern, Vanessa Redgrave and Rex Smith and The Tale of the Frog Prince with Robin Williams and Teri Garr.

Animated stories include Jonathon

Swift's Gulliver's Travels and Jules Verne's 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea.

Two drug prevention tapes featuring the Los Angeles Lakers in "Just Say No" and "Shattered" with special appearances by Burt Reynolds and Judd Nelson are also available.

Video tapes that have been ordered but have not been received include Anne of Green Gables, Where the Red Fern Grows, Island of the Blue Dolphin and many more.

"We are excited with the addition of the tape library," said Duley, "and feel it will be a great service to our patrons."

The Library Board has not allocated additional funding for the tape library at this time. Duley said future purchases will be made as donations are received.

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

The news is full of the struggle of people all over the world trying to obtain what we seem to hold so lightly in our country, the freedom to choose. In free elections we can choose our leaders. We are free to attend the church of our choice or none if we so choose. We are free to choose where we will work and live. We can travel as we wish to where we wish. We are free to speak out on the shortcomings of our government and to criticize the actions we oppose. We tend to think of them as God given rights, but they were rights hard won on the battlefield.

Many brave men died to win and hold those freedoms we have today. People all over the world are trying to lighten the tyrant's hold on the basic freedoms all men dream of having. Many people do not bother to exercise their right to vote, while men are dying to win that right. Many would take away a lot of our rights to promote their many causes. Just because a few abuse their rights, let's not take rights away from everyone. The fiasco of Prohibition is an example of trying to take away the rights of all because of the abuses of a few.

A good example of a Prohibition type law are the so called gun control laws that would disarm everyone because of the actions of a few. Seems a lot of politicians like to climb up on their soap box and tell how taking the guns away from everyone would solve all the crime problems in the country. I think just the reverse is true, if more honest men had a gun in their pocket there would be a lot less crime. No hood would feel free to commit the street crimes that plague our cities today if some of those honest people might have a gun in their pocket.

If they take the guns away from honest people, no man's home would be safe from the predators that stalk our land. It is the criminal's fear of the armed citizen that allows most of us to sleep safe in our homes tonight. Michigan has had the hand gun registration laws since 1927. Still I'll bet that not one handgun in ten used in crime in Michigan is registered to the person committing the crime.

I have never had to fire a shot in anger and hope I never will, but if it ever comes to the choice of being the murderer or the murdered, I'll take murderer every time.

Almanac

By Richard Milliman

Recipe for a happy life

WHAT A BETTER TIME than as the years and decades change to take one of our infrequent strolls, barefoot through the potpourri....

AND WHAT BETTER way to start such a stroll through miscellany than with the classic recipe for a happy life offered years ago by Ralph Waldo Emerson:

"A happy life is to laugh often and to love much... to win the respect of intelligent persons and the affection of children... to earn the approbation of honest critics and to endure the betrayal of friends... to appreciate beauty... to find the best in everything... to give one's self... to leave the world a bit better, whether by a happy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition... to have played and laughed with enthusiasm, and to have sung with exaltation... to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived..."

STAYING ON THE UPBEAT side -- which is perfectly proper at this season of the year -- we call on Dave Richey, outdoor editor of The Detroit News, who explained in a lyric way in a recent column why he loves the outdoors, fishing and hunting:

"I like the wind on my face, the dainty sip of a stream trout sucking a fly off the surface, the sight of a whitetail buck sneaking through heavy cover, a flock of mallards coming to the decoys, the mournful honk of Canada geese coming to a call, new snow in winter, single-file fox tracks over a hill, the first rush of adrenaline on seeing a black bear."

It's easy to understand why Mr. Richey loves his job.

AS LONG AS WE'RE quoting, turn to the Newsweek magazine column by George F. Will, discussing the sweep of political change across Europe.

Mr. Will, who once taught at Michigan State University, argues that the ideas of democracy have overtaken the ideas of communism.

"The ideas and rhetoric reverberating through the middle of the Old World come from the New World, from Jefferson and Lincoln," Mr. Will writes.

"Of course, American material as well as moral force has prevailed. In the 40 years since Soviet behavior provoked a reluctant America to stop disarming, defense has cost $10.4 trillion..."

Concludes Mr. Will: "It has been history's biggest bargain. It held the line while Jefferson's ideas sowed their wholesome disorder..."

IN A SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT vein, but still stealing quotes, try this one from MSU Football Coach George Perles, explaining why the Northwestern University football team was losing games: "The reason they're getting beat is that people are outscoring them."

Well... yeah, coach, but isn't that the purpose of the game?

Or there were the words of MSU Athletic Director Doug Weaver, on the spot because the MSU band was not being sent to the Aloha Bowl in Hawaii, along with the football team. Some band backers complained that the band had not made any trips to regular away games during the season to save money for a bowl trip, which was now denied. Asked what would happen to that money, Mr. Weaver explained: "It's money not spent, not money saved."

Well... yeah. And now that Mr. Weaver has retired from MSU, maybe he has a future in politics.

For some colorful language (pun intended), listen to the reaction of Catholic Bishop Patrick R. Cooney, recently named to head the Diocese of Gaylord. Said the Bishop: "I'm just tickled pink."

I'm sure he was... but it's unusual to hear that phrase any more, especially from a bishop, and right out in public, too.

For colorful language, few phrases could top that used by Detroit Free Press TV critic Susan Stewart, describing the dialogue in a recent TV drama. The dialogue, she wrote, was "dumber than a meat loaf sandwich." I saw the show. It was.

And finally, the comment by U.S. Rep. Guy Vanderhaeghe of Cadillac, explaining why Congress is reluctant to deal with questionable personal behavior of its members (of which there has been plenty lately): "Even if he is a scalawag and a scoundrel, the public has a right to be represented by a scalawag and a scoundrel if they so choose."

That's probably true, too. But maybe there should be a quota system.

Letters to the Editor

Reader Says Civilians Shouldn't Interfere With Military Training

This letter is written to all the people of Grayling who so loudly object to the training of our military men and women in the Grayling National Guard that you attract the attention of our whole country, even as far away as Hawaii.

I'm sure some of these men and women are even now fighting in Panama or have previously trained there; perhaps some of them have been wounded or even been killed there already. We should be proud here to have the privilege of preparing them for battle. It is not fun and games they are in training for, and even while they are training here their military training can be life threatening for them. Do you realize that they are standing ready to give their lives for our country which includes all of us? Can you imagine how you are hurting these men and women and their families with your petty criticisms?

Anyone who moved to Grayling within the last 75 years knew of the National Guard's training presence here, before you came because that is how long they've been here. We were proud to go to their 75th Anniversary Celebration at Camp Grayling last year and when you realize how many wonderful Guardsmen and women are training here and how well the National Guard handles all of them, there is no excuse for all your criticism. Civilians should not try to interfere with military affairs. It is bad enough that the television news media tries to run the country.

If you people are looking for a quiet place for recreation purposes, you will find it in many other areas of our great country. Our military personnel will even protect you wherever you choose to settle and they should be respected for their dedication to our country.

Maybe it takes a war to make you realize the importance of living in a free country with the military protection they give us. War is a terrible reality now and my prayers are with all these brave men and women. So let's be more support-tive and show our appreciation of our military personnel. They are doing very important work for all of us.

Marathon Receives Great Review

To The Grayling Chamber of Commerce:

My name is Bob Zsolczai. I live in Miami, Fla. In the spring, I called your office for info about the Canoe Marathon. You put me in touch with Steve Southard, and he sent me info and applications as I wanted to enter a "Challenge Race", etc. But we (Cheryl, my friend, and I) decided this year to just come and "observe". We were only sorry we didn't come a day or two earlier to enjoy all of the festivities and hoopla of the Civil War Army Camp and other activities. We arrive on Sat. at 12:30 p.m. But we "did the town", parade, the early races (in the rain) and had a heck of a good time. Thanks!

Comments on the Marathon: It was great! I never "chased ahead" of a race before, from bridge to bridge, through the north woods at 3:00 a.m. (and all night) before. It was an experience I'll never forget. Boy, is it dark in those woods! I got lost a couple of times but a 7-11 type store in Mio was eager to assist with directions, etc. at 2:00 a.m. They (young boy) were so friendly and courteous to me (Cheryl) was sleeping by now). All the places we stopped to eat, gas up on our way to Oscoda and the "finish line" were very cordial to "us tourists." We had a great time in Oscoda too.

WE WILL BE BACK!!!

Thank you Northern Michigan for your warm, honest, and sincere hospitality.

Credit Must Be Given to Author

I am writing to take exception to the "Guest Column" article by Cathy Ostrander in your Dec. 28th issue. The title, words, and thoughts expressed by the article are beautiful but they do not belong to or were they original thoughts of hers as might be implied by reading the article with her name at the end. The passage was taken directly from the best selling book by Robert Fulghum, "All I Really Need to Know

I Learned in Kindergarten". Hopefully she was just trying to pass along some common sense wisdom that she had discovered. A noble idea if that was the case, but credit must be given to the author whenever one chooses to use that person's words and thoughts in one's own writings.

Dear Editor and Readers,

"ALL I REALLY NEED TO KNOW I LEARNED IN KINDERGARTEN" was written by Robert Fulghum, Villard Books, N.Y., Copyright 1986, 1988, and 1989. LIBRARY OF CONGRESS Cataloging-in-Publications Data.

It appears in last week's AVALANCHE (Dec. 28, 1989) that there was obvious plagiarism. Bits and pieces were taken from Fulghum's book and no credit given to him at all.

Honesty really is the best policy!

Janet M. Dice
Grayling, Mich.

(Editor's note: More than a dozen readers have called to tell us the guest column published last week in the Avalanche titled "All I Ever Really Needed to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" was material written by Robert Fulghum and published in his best selling book of the same title.

The Avalanche was not aware at the time we published the guest column that the material was written by Robert Fulghum. The person submitting the handwritten material to us said her sister had written it and the bottom of the short essay said written by Cathy Ostrander, 400 Madsen St. #2, Grayling.

We apologize for the lack of proper credit given to Robert Fulghum.)

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

In 1987, E. D. Hirsch, Jr., published the book "Cultural Literacy." Hirsch claimed that, in order to be truly a literate nation, Americans must acquire a body of shared information about our culture.

His phrase "Cultural literacy," became one of the many buzzwords of the '80s. And whether one agreed or disagreed with Hirsch's theory, any "culturally literate" person of the decade knew enough about the concept to throw it out in conversation.

The 1980s provided us with hundreds or perhaps thousands of other words and phrases and names and places and events. To celebrate the end of the decade (and with assistance from various media) I have recorded a few of them that remain meaningful to me.

My list is far from complete and definitely subjective. It reflects my interests and my fears and probably my biases. I call it a "Partial Alphabetical Pop Culture List of What Literate Americans Know about the 1980s."

Anyone who was conscious during the past decade should be able to readily identify the following terms. Check it out. See if you are "pop culturally literate" about the 1980s.

Abortion - Acid Rain - Achilles - AIDS - Alar - Corazon Aquino - Arbitrage.

Baby M - Back to the Future - the Bakkers - Lucille Ball - Batman - Boris Becker - Beetlejuice - Benetton - Berlin Wall - Beverly Hills Cop - Len Blas - Ivan Boesky - Bonfire of the Vanities - Bran - George Bush.

DINKS - Dirty Dancing - Do the Right Thing - Phil Donahue - Don't Worry, Be Happy - Doonesbury - Dove Bars - Michael Dukakis - Dynasty.

Eastern Europe - Endangered Species - Chris Evert - ET - Exxon Valdez.

Farm Aid - Fast Food - Fatal Attraction - Geraldine Ferraro - Fitness - Jane Fonda Workout - Michael J. Fox.

Gandhi - Gay Rights - Ghostbusters - Glasnost - Go Ahead,

Make My Day - Bernard Goetz - Good Morning, Vietnam - Golden Girls - Mikhail Gorbachev - Greed - Greenhouse Effect - Grenada - Wayne Gretzky.

Gary Hart - Max Headroom - Leona Helmsley - Pee Wee Herman - Hill Street Blues - Rock Hudson - Lee Jacobca - Investment Banking - Iran Hostages.

Japan - Jesse Jackson - Michael Jackson - Indiana Jones - Michael Jordan - Florence Griffith Joyner - Junk Bonds.

Ayatollah Khomeini - Calvin Klein - C. Everett Koop. The Dalai Lama - The Last Temptation of Christ - Cyndi Lauper - L. A. Law - Let's Do Lunch - Lyme Disease.

Pacman - Pandas - Pasta - Jane Pauley - Phantom of the Opera - Claude Pepper - Pope John Paul II - Prince - Purple Rain.

Dan Quayle - Karen Ann Quinlan - Roger Rabbit - Rainbow Coalition - Rainman - Rambo - Read My Lips - Ronald Reagan - Mary Lou Retton - Donna Rice - Geraldo Rivera - Joan Rivers - Pete Rose - Roseanne - Rubik Cube.

Safe Sex - Arnold Schwarzenegger - Secretariat - Semi-Automatic Weapons - Sleaze Factor - Sneakers - Solidarity - Bruce Springsteen - Star Wars - Meryl Streep - Street People - Superconductors - Sushi - Jimmy Swaggart - Swatches.

Terms of Endearment - They're Here - Debi Thomas - Isiah Thomas - Tienanmen Square - Tootsie - Toxic Waste - Tropical Rain Forest - Donald Trump - Turf Wars - Bishop Desmond Tutu - Tina Turner.

U.S.A. Today. Video Cassette Recorder - Vietnam Memorial - Voyager.

Lech Walesa - Wall Street - War Against Drugs - We Are The World - Wheel of Fortune - Where's the Beef? - Vanna White - Vanessa Williams - Oprah Winfrey.

Yuppies.

So. How'd you do? And perhaps, more importantly, what would you have added to or deleted from this list to complete your own partial and biased pop culture list for the 1980s?

And now, bring on the 90s.

IT TOOK 138 YEARS
TO MAKE A NON-ALCOHOLIC
BREW TASTE THIS GOOD.

Creating a non-alcoholic brew as good as O'Doul's wasn't easy. It took talent. It took taste. It took tradition.

But most of all it took Anheuser-Busch, with over 138 years of brewing excellence. The kind of excellence you'll discover in O'Doul's.

O'Doul's starts as a fine premium beer. Carefully brewed, fully fermented and cold aged, using only the finest ingredients. Then the alcohol is naturally removed, retaining all the great taste of a fine premium beer.

Smooth. Delicious. Refreshing. So the next time you'd like a non-alcoholic brew, ask for O'Doul's. You'll enjoy the taste for years to come.

O'DOUL'S. THE TASTE WILL WIN YOU O'VER.

I Bet You
Didn't Know

Brought To You
By Bill Hart
Sales Representative

Here's a pro football question for you... Which is the only team in the National Football League that plays its home games in a stadium named for another NFL team? Answer is the New York Jets... They play their home games in Giants Stadium... Giants Stadium was originally built for the New York Giants and is now shared by both the Giants and Jets.

Ever wonder how heavy a bowling ball is?... Actually, it may be any weight as long as it doesn't exceed 16 pounds... The official rules say only that a bowling ball must not weigh more than 16 pounds.

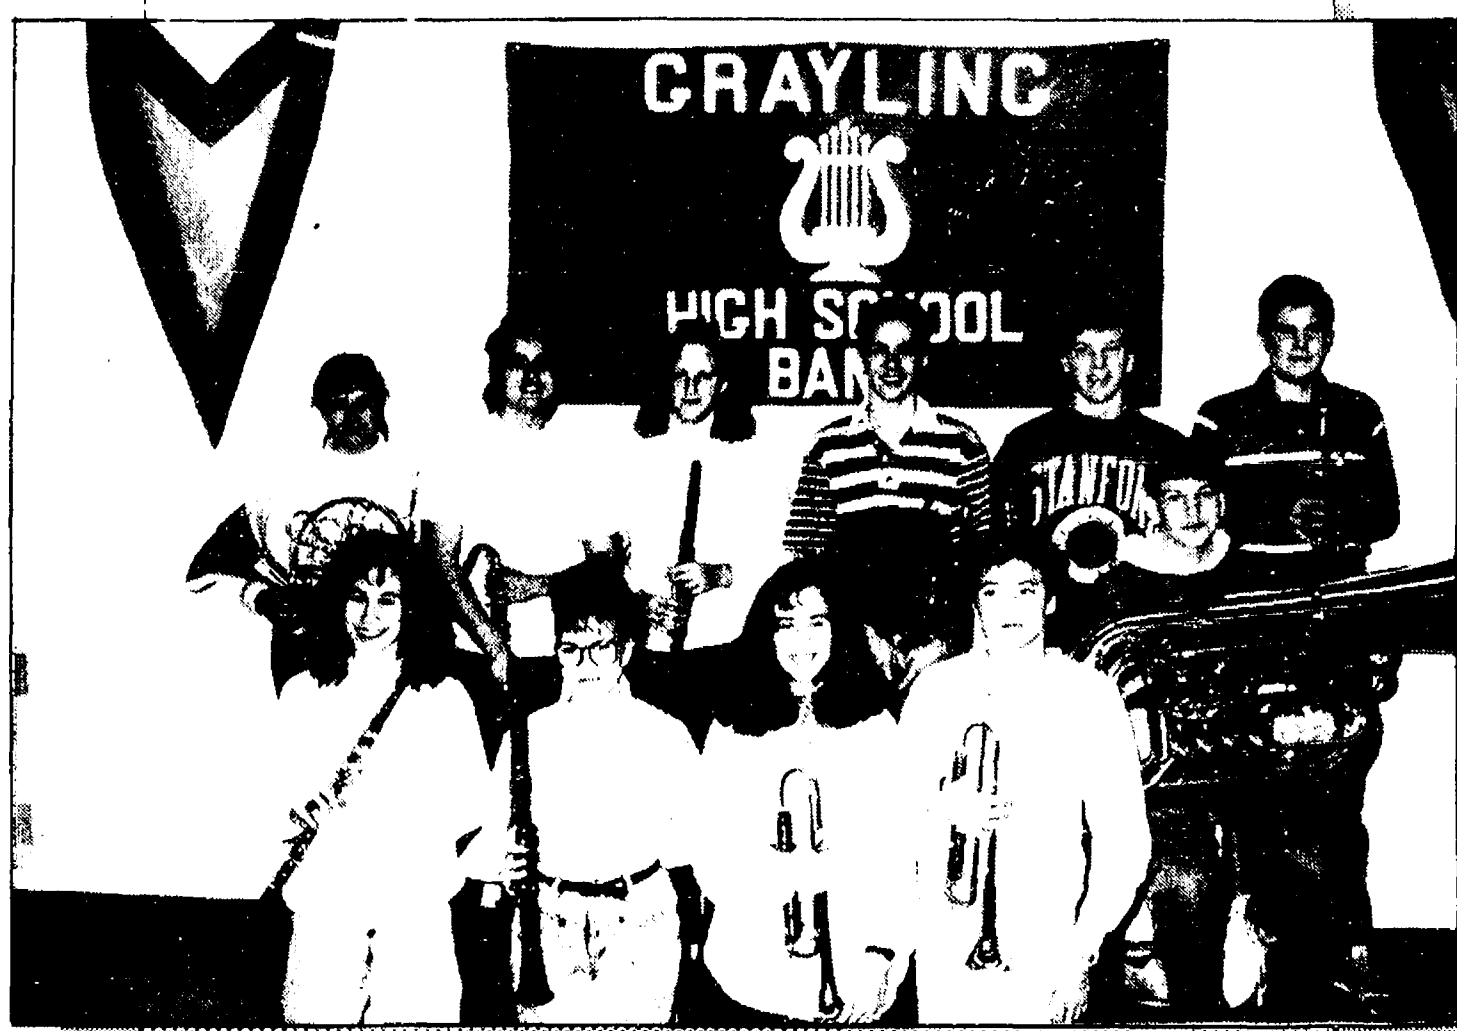

An unusual feature of the 1989 World Series was that the San Francisco Giants never led the Oakland A's at ANY time in ANY game in the entire Series... Throughout the Series, the score was either tied or Oakland was ahead.

I bet you didn't know... That it's possible that it may not be warm again till spring. So if you want or need a new or used car or truck and you want a hot deal, come out into the cold weather and save money! We will create ways to fit the car you really want into your budget. If you can bundle up and go outside to ski, snowmobile, walk, jog, or even just to get the newspaper, keep going and come on up to Scheer Motors in Grayling. We will make your day!

The Bible Speaks

The Gospel of John Part # 109 Behold The Cross

"And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required." (Luke 23:24). "Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away." (John 19:16). "And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put how own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him." (Matthew 27:31). Notice how Jesus exercised His volition to be led "as a lamb to the slaughter" as it was prophesied of Him in Isaiah 53:7. As John the Baptist had declared of Him, "...Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (John 1:29b).

"And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha." (John 19:17). Golgotha also means Calvary to us gentiles. "And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left." (Luke 23:33). Although John doesn't mention it, the Romans made Simon a Cyrenian carry the cross for Christ the last part of his journey. (Mark 15:21). "Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst." (John 19:18). Another prophecy is fulfilled. "Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death; and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors." (Isaiah 53:12). Every human being is now identified with one of the two thieves crucified with Jesus. Both were sinners, both were condemned to death. One believed Jesus died as an innocent substitute to save him and bring him into His kingdom with Him. "And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom." (Luke 23:42). He had read the superscription on the cross that Jesus Christ was the King of the Jews. Therefore, he knew Jesus Christ would be resurrected to enter His kingdom. He therefore acknowledged Him as Lord and placed his trust in Him alone as his savior. "And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." (Luke 23:43).

One condemned thief is in Heaven today with Jesus, the other is in Hell. The only difference between them was their relationship to Jesus Christ. What is Jesus Christ and His cross to you today? "And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:27). Is the Lord Jesus both savior and Lord of your heart and life today?

CHURCH DIRECTORY

You can learn more than spelling while playing with blocks. You can also learn how good and evil are the results of the choices we make.

HAT could have been HATE. And LOVE would then have been incomplete. It all depends on where you put one block.

People who realize the tremendous importance of seemingly small choices want their children to acquire a sense of spiritual responsibility. The churches and synagogues serving our community respect and fulfill that vital need through religious education and moral training.

When we grow up and put away our blocks, those same churches and synagogues provide the spiritual foundation on which we build a life of decision-making.

Doodles from the Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover
Hartwick Pines Interpreter

Without fanfare and visible notice, the days lengthen as the sun does its u-turn and starts back north again. As the days get longer, the cold seems to get a stronger hold on land. One hundred years ago the low temperatures, we have had for the past month, would have made any logging camp foreman happy.

Usually by Christmas, the most of the cutting was done and a great many logs would have been piled along the main sled roads to await the sled haul season. A lot of preparation went into the building and layout of a system of sled roads. They had to be smooth, hopefully void of steep grades, arranged with turnouts and go back roads, so loaded sleds weren't meeting unloaded sleds. Any turns were made as gentle as the terrain would allow. Where steep grades could not be avoided, a boss would arrange for a supply of hay to be piled at such a location. After the road was iced, a "hay man on the hill" would spread hay on the sled road to slow a loaded sled down.

There were places where a hill was so steep that a snub was used. A large stump served as the post and around this would be three coils of two inch rope, separated by big wooden pegs, driven horizontally into auger-holes bored into the stump. Sometimes, the rope was played out by hand and other times it was controlled by a lever. Without a good "hay man on the hill" or "snubber" a lot of bad things could have happened.

The Man Of The Plow And Gun

Those men and women of the National Guard
Are like the patriots that won this land
Who carried on with their every day work
But kept their muskets close at hand

That Minute Man with his plow and gun
Symbolizes the people of the Guard today
We should be sure they receive full credit
For the dual role that they play

For they are our friends and neighbors
Folks the same as you and I
But folks that will spare no effort
To insure that our freedom will not die

For they train hard in the skills
Soldiers need in time of war
To protect this land of freedom
And keep tyrants from our shore

While we sleep they work and train
To serve if the need should arise
To defend our flag and nation
On land or in the skies

They train to protect us
So how can we complain
About the noise of their guns
Or the roaring of a plane

So stand proud and tall, brave Minute Man
Who trains hard to keep the peace
For perhaps because you are ready to serve
All talk of war will cease

Gift of Love

God's gift to us, what He has given.
Into our care the children come.
Not ours to keep but only guide,
True gifts of love for everyone.

We take these gifts for granted,
As we watch them grow in years.
We push them on by duty bound,
But take so little time to share their fears.

Play with them, laugh with them,
And let them feel your loving touch.
Don't be afraid to hug each one,
Oh, how they want those hugs so much.

Take some time in each short day,
To really listen to their words.
Be that breeze that lifts them up,
And helps them fly like soaring birds.

Live for them but not in them,
For to each they are their own.
Into our quilt God stitched their life,
His love for us so truly shown.

And if their journey darkens,
Let your love show them the way.
Let it be that brightest star,
That turns their darkness into day.

Please love the children,
Please love them one and all.
Take the time to cherish them,
And be there when they do call.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Snowmobile season is upon us with the arrival of cold weather enthusiasts anticipated. The snowmobile law (Act 74 of 1968) has several provisions which speak to the subject of the safety of snowmobilers. The most important of these provisions are also the most misunderstood. This is the section which prohibits the operation of a snowmobile upon a public highway.

A highway is defined as "the entire width between the boundary lines of every way publicly maintained..." This includes the roadway or main travelled portion, the shoulder and the right-of-way. Now with this prohibition in place, the law allows some exceptions. First, a snowmobile may be operated on the right-of-way if it is operated on the extreme right of the open portion of the right-of-way and with the flow of traffic. Second, a snowmobile may be operated on the roadway or shoulder when it is necessary to cross a bridge or culvert. (The snowmobile must be brought to a complete stop and yield to approaching vehicles.) Third, a snowmobile may be driven across a highway, at a right angle, when going from one side to the other (again, come to a complete stop and yield to traffic).

Finally, a county may open the county road system to the operation of snowmobiles on the "right-of-way or shoulder". This is the misunderstood part. The term "county road system" does not include state trunk lines. Neither does "right-of-way or shoulder" include the main traveled portion or roadway.

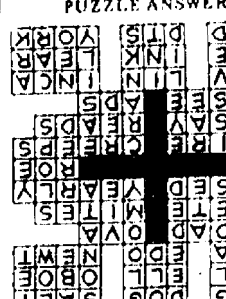

Therefore, a county cannot permit the operation of a snowmobile on the right-of-way or shoulder of a highway. Similarly, the open portion of a county road does not include the main travelled portion, only the right-of-way and shoulder. At no time may a snowmobile be operated within the right-of-way of a limited access highway.

Marathon

day. The Grayling & Oscoda committee representatives have agreed that it will be mutually beneficial to "permanently" plan a Saturday night start and Sunday finish.

ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE & FUNCTION

Since 1984 the Marathon has been staged by a non-profit corporation which was formed solely for the purpose of organizing and promoting the event - The AuSable River International Canoe Marathon, Inc. (ARICM). This group is comprised of race fans interested in contributing their time and effort to assure the continuation of such a unique event.

Overall decisions are to be made by a twelve member Board of Directors, evenly divided between representatives of Grayling and Oscoda. Each town also has the option of naming six Alternate Directors, to act in a Director's absence.

John Cherven, of Grayling, and Tom Mizner, of Oscoda, will co-chair the Board of Directors during 1990. John has been very active on the organizing committee during the past several years. He has contributed to its recent success and become familiar with much of the considerable detail associated with staging such a major event, according to past chairman Steve Southard.

Other Board officers will be elected at the January Board meeting.

EVENT BUDGET

No Marathon has been concluded with deficit since ARICM, Inc. was formed in 1984. During that time the advertised purse has increased from $7500 to $25000 and the overall budget from just over $12,000 to $40-50,000.

Over two-thirds of the Marathon budget is raised within the local communities through program-book ad sales, raffles and Marathon souvenir sales. The remaining balance, less than one-third, comes from sponsorships.

The attraction of major sponsors has facilitated the Marathon's growth in recent years. The committee is now looking at alternatives which would provide funding to further improve the Marathon and to take advantage of the media exposure opportunities offered by an event of this stature.

THE FUTURE OF THE MARATHON

The Marathon is unique in that it is a public event and has been organized and supported by fans on a voluntary basis. No admission has ever been charged, no salary has ever been paid to a race organizer.

The committees in both Grayling and Oscoda hope to continue staging and improving the Marathon. A very small and active group of fans has worked throughout the year to stage the Marathon with help from dozens of volunteers on race day.

As the Marathon has grown and improved over the last several years, the effort required to stage it has increased likewise. Additional volunteer help, both for pre-race committee work and the day of the race, is needed to assure the continuation of this world class event.

INPUT & ASSISTANCE REQUESTED

Marathon fans who would like to contribute some time and effort toward a successful 1990 Marathon are invited to attend the Organizing Committee's monthly meeting. Regular meetings of the Grayling AuSable Marathon Committee take place the first Monday of each month - 7:00 p.m. at the Grayling Holiday Inn. Dates for the next several meetings are: January 8, February 5, March 5, April 2, May 7.
